

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Pediatric Critical Care Medicine
Postgraduate Training Program

ELECTIVE SPECIFIC COMPETENCIES FOR:
*INFECTIOUS DISEASE

Terminal Objectives:

The competent pediatric critical care resident/fellow will demonstrate their ability to:

1. Demonstrate clinical competence in the diagnosis and management of children with common and uncommon infectious disease

Enabling Competencies:

1. Take a relevant history and perform clinical examination as it pertains to infectious diseases.
2. Be familiar with appropriate antibiotic prescription for relevant infectious diseases.
3. Recommend appropriate investigations in defining the cause of fever of unknown origin/overwhelming sepsis.
4. Use laboratory services effectively.
5. Learn the principle and logic of infection control procedures
6. Have awareness of local patterns of disease and resistance

Reviewed January 2013